Community Storehouse is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity and inclusion. By bringing together employees, board members, and volunteers from diverse backgrounds and giving each person the opportunity to contribute their best skills, experience and perspectives, we believe we are able to best serve our customers and sustain the value of our company's culture, reputation and results.

Community Storehouse's diversity and inclusion initiatives are applicable – but not limited to – our practices and policies on recruiting and selection, compensation and benefits, hiring and terminations. The ongoing development of a work environment built on the premise of gender and diversity equity encourages and enforces courteous and respectful communication and cooperation between all employees, as well as teamwork, employee participation, and the representation of all employees. We treat all our stakeholders -- customers, community members, suppliers and each other -- respectfully and fairly, staying true to the values embedded in the Community Storehouse culture.

Community Storehouse is an Equal Opportunity Employer without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status.
